The document is in Amharic. It contains information on how to file for unemployment benefits, the qualifications for benefits, and various government websites and phone numbers for assistance.

The document also provides information on eligibility for SNAP benefits, WIC, and other assistance programs.

There is a section on food assistance, including a link to the DC government's food resources website.

In addition, the document includes information on how to get help for COVID-19 related issues, including a link to the DC government's COVID-19 food assistance website.

The document concludes with a call to action for the community to stay informed and seek assistance when needed.

The document is published by the Government of the District of Columbia, Office of the Mayor.